THE CITY.

MEMPHIS:
Thursday Evening, July 15, 1875.

A City Attorney Elected.

Yesterday in the General Council Mayor League nominated Judge Sam P.
Walker for the City Attorneyship, which nomination was indorsed by the Council and the election made. The special committee reported in favor of electing an attorney for only the unexpired term, but ridiculously added that, "while the Council had power to elect an attorney for two years, they did not deem it advisable to elect an attorney for more than the unexpired term." The Council had no such power; if it had, then it has power to re-elect all city officers for two years except the Mayor and themselves and the Commissioners, which, we opine, is a proposition too thin and silly to be asserted by any sensible man.
Stocking the cards on the next city election would not be popular, even if it was legal.

amine our white shirts at $1 and sioner, vice Commissioner Goodman, resigned.

Dr. H. Ess has been appointed by the the year.

Notwithstanding the dull times, the sound of the carpenter's hammer and the mason's trowel are heard throughout the city.

Next month merchants will receive a rebate of one and a half per cent. for prompt payment of taxes with fire and police warrants.

The County Court has granted a certificate to a black man, Wm. M. Griggs, who aspires to become a legal practitioner in this city.

Next Tuesday morning Manager Tracy will escort another party of Memphians to the Mammoth Cave and back Even among the colored brethren of broken out, in which it is alleged that a venerable ebony pastor was caught in flagrant delicto.

The Criminal Court is doing a little misdemeanor business, and is awaiting the return of Attorney General Wright from St. Louis in order to fix up bills of exceptions and adjourn to the next term.

A camp of Shelby county Grangers met in the County Court-room to-day.
The hay-seed boys engaged in psalmody, and in this musical effort were ably assisted by the earthly divinities, Pomona, Ceres, Flora and others.

The City Finance Committee is composed of Aldermen Hillsman, Metcalf and White, Councilmen Camp, Hewitt, Cochran, Carpenter and Fisher. The Mayor and City Attorney are ex-officio members of the Committee.

A gentleman whispered to our reporter this morning that he was leaving on a summer tour to the springs, but that he did not want his name published in that connection, as it would attract the attention of his creditors.

The Mayor has not been authorized by the General Council to advertise for bids for hiring out the city convicts, but the resolution so proposing has been referred to the Workhouse Committee for further consideration and investigation.

Merchants, instead of buying police and fire warrants from brokers, now leave orders at the Adams street station-house, stating that they want so much and will pay 90c therefor. The Mechanics and Traders' Bank is also paying 90c.

The ordinance providing that the outer doors of all churches, theaters and public buildings shall be hung so as to swing outwardly has become a law. This necessary measure for the protection of human life in case of a fire or other alarm should be strictly enforced immediately.

An immense beet was sent to the Appeal office yesterday. It stared the city editor in the face, and he stared it in the face; it was a dead beet and he was a live-kind of a chap, who, reflecting and considering the vegetable before him, muttered: "This beats all the beets I have ever seen."

The Police Commissioners will sit on Monday morning next and hear the complaint of T. O'Sullivan and other citizens residing near the corner of Second and Washington streets as to the necessity of suppressing or removing four houses of ill fame in that immediate vicinity on Washington, between Main and Second, which places are alleged to be unbearable nuisances.

At the Bluff City Shooting club contest for the silver pitcher held yesterday Charley Leland was the successful pigeon slaughterer, he killing nine out of five double birds eighteen yards rise, one hundred yards boundary and defeating ten opponents, as follows: Messrs.
Saunders, Wheatly, France, Bryson, Gibson, Cockerel, Specht, D. Bryson, Merriman and Poston.

A sink hole in the pavement at the mouth of Center alley, on Monroe street, between Main and Front, is filled with fetid water, which emits a most disagreeable effluvia not exactly enjoyed by the residents in that locality, or by the pedestrians who have to pass by the nuisance. Will the city authorities fix this as they did that pavement nuisance on the corner of Second and North Court streets?

The last picnic given by the B. T. S.
Club was so satisfactory to every one concerned that the management have been prevailed upon to give another tomorrow (Friday) evening, for which invitations have been issued. It being entirely a private affair, no one will be admitted without the properly signed invitation.

It is not known whether Waddy Thompson has succeeded in locking up Sheriff Anderson and Attorney General Wright in his Missouri penitentiary, or that the latter have induced Mr. Thompson to come to Memphis and take the chances of reaching the Tennessee penitentiary house at Nashville.

Last night an Adams street hook and ladder man chased a rat from Second to Third street and made frantic efforts to kick and kill it, and it was not until he got to Third street that he discovered that a small boy with a freckled face was running ahead of him holding a string, to the other end of which the dead rat was attached. That boy will be Mayor of Memphis yet.

The City Attorney, Mayor and Finance Committee are considering that great problem, the city indebtedness, and in a few days bondholders will know whether an equitable compromise or a slashing big lawsuit is preferable. One thing is certain, the city is going to make a determined and prolonged fight at all available points, to which the little struggle heretofore made is but child's play.

Two Deputy Constables went after an escaped negro cattle thief to Nonconah bottom yesterday. The negro knocked one of the Constables down, dismarmed him and fired three shots at the other, who hastened back to this city.
The negro had stolen cattle near Horn Lake, Miss., and escaped from the officers here after his two confederates had been arrested.

That City Hospital requisition for necessary supplies for the sick and needy has been filled at last, but for three weeks past the sick women and men at the hospital had to live on meat and bread, although the doctor in charge protested against such food. Councilman Hewitt, chairman of the Hospital Committee, and Mayor League obtained the supplies by promising the grocery man to see that the bill was duly paid.

When the report of the Committee on Accounts was read at the City Hall yesterday Councilman Camp moved to strike out an appropriation of $645 05, pay of members, he believing that under the new charter Aldermen and Councilmen should receive no pay, but the City Fathers stood firm and rallied around that twenty dollars per month with a spirit and bravery worthy of a better cause, they not even being willing to scale the debt down, but insisted on getting their "dollar for dollar," not in scrip, but in greenbacks.

The sealed box containing the papers and archives of the Mecklenburg Centennial celebration held in this city was yesterday deposited in the vault of the County Court. The box contains an inscription directing it to be held for one hundred years, and then delivered to the Mayor or other superior officer of Memphis on the first Monday in May, 1975.
If not called for or forgotten by the then Mayor or superior officer, our present city editor will make the demand and examine the contents. But there may be a dozen different independent republics or monarchies in this land of ours by that time.

Not a day passes but you hear the name of some citizen spoken of as a suitable candidate for the Mayoralty office. The name of Colonel Leath, present Police and Fire Commissioner, has been mentioned among others. In many wards gentlemen button-hole you, walk you across the street through the sun, and when you reach the other pavement impart the terrible mystery to you that they are candidates for either Councilman or Alderman, just as if they expect you to become enthused or to care a nickel whether or not they aspire to municipal honors or the penitentiary uniform.

A Romance or What?

There was a marriage up town the other afternoon, and the happy couple and rejoicing friends repaired to a neighboring beer caravansary to hold the wedding feast. This beer hostelry is frequented by the leading nymphs of the demi-monde, where they meet their friends and sip their beer just as they would do in the gardens of Berlin or Vienna.

Pauline touched beer glasses with Alphonse upon the evening above mentioned, when the bridal party entered and took seats around the different tables. Beer, like wine, brings about sociability and good fellowship, and many a friend is both won and lost over the handle of a beer mug on the neck of a bottle of champagne. Soon the bride was toasted by the fair Aspasias, one Thais, rising and giving the health of the happy couple. Good cheer abounded, and the result was that a leader of the monde invited the bride and groom to her house to receive a feast fit for Cupid or Bacchus. It was accepted, and a night or two afterward an up-town maison de joie was brilliantly lighted up; a feast, flanked with bouquets and wine, was partaken of by the bride and groom, the proprietores and her nymphs, besides a select coterie of male friends. Music and dancing followed, and at a very late hour the recherche affair closed, the happy couple leaving for home and receiving the congratulations of the nymphs, who wished them a long life and a prosperous one, even if their own sad lives were clouds without a silver lining.

Ex Governor John C. Brown has been in the city two or three days on professional business, and his many friends are gratified to see that he is in perfect health and vigor.

Our former fellow-citizen General Jas.
D. Ruffin, after a winter's sojourn in Florida and a lengthy and prolonged tour through California, returned to the city last evening from a business trip to his North Mississippi plantations. He intends leaving again in a few days on a summer trip to the great lakes and Eastern seaboard. The General looks as hale and hearty as he did in antebellum days and in war times of later date.

To-day Colonel M. L. Meacham and family left over the Charleston railroad to indulge in a tour in cooler climes during the summer season. Colonel Meacham intends visiting the Montgomery White and Yellow Sulphur Springs, of Virginia, and then repair to the seashore at Cape May, Nantant and other points. On returning to this city Col.
Meacham will be refreshed and ready to resume control of the very large business annually transacted by his well-known house. In company with Mr.
Meacham were also his daughter, Mrs.
William Stewart, and Mrs. Wm. E.
Boggs, wife of the well-known pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of our Chancellor Appointed.

To-day Colonel F. D. Stockton received a telegram from Nashville announcing his appointment as Chancellor of the Second Chancery Court to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Judge Walker. The dispatch is from Major Hamby, Governor Porter's private secretary, and is as follows:

NASHVILLE, TENN., July 14, 1875.
Hon. Francis D. Stockton:
You have been appointed Chancellor, vice Walker, resigned. Will send commission to-morrow. W. R. HAMBY.

Chancellor Stockton is an able lawyer, and this unsolicited appointment to the important office is a well deserved compliment to worth and talent.

A Good Sight.

We saw on the streets to-day three wagon loads of splendid June apples, which grew on the Blackwell place, near Bartlett, and were brought in by Mr. F.
E. Lester for shipment to Chicago. He has quite a crop all in splendid condition. We have heard it said that apples will not grow in this climate. It is true, they will not grow wild, but come as near it as any place in the world. There is not a finer fruit region anywhere, and the people are just finding it out. They are beginning to raise a surplus in some shape or other, which is the foundation of prosperity.

Billiards and Revolving Fans.

Sid Cook has made billiards a summer amusement at his Peabody Hall by introducing a steam wind storm raiser, which, by a system of revolving fans, keeps the hall at a charmingly cool temperature. You can play billiards with your overcoat on and feel comfortable, although on the
